Conducted by COLONEL H. BRUCE GILKES

Colonel H. Bruce Gilkes, former Commander and Conductor of The United States Air Force Band of the Rockies and The United States Air Force Academy Band, Colorado Springs, Colorado, is a native of New York. In 1962, he entered the Eastman School of Music, where he studied trombone with Emory Remington and voice with Metropolitan opera bass-baritone Julius Huehn. In 1965, Colonel Gilkes enlisted in The United States Air Force Band as a euphonium player. During the next several years, he performed with various units of the Air Force Band and sang in the Camerata Chorus of Washington, D.C. while concurrently pursuing undergraduate studies at Catholic University of America. In 1973, he received the Bachelor of Music degree in Voice (magna cum laude) and later earned a Master of Music in Voice.

During his 33-year Air Force career, Colonel Gilkes toured in nearly all 50 states, as well as Europe, Central and South America and the Caribbean. He has performed before U.S. presidents, both chambers of Congress, foreign heads of state, His Holiness Pope John Paul II, and other high-level foreign dignitaries, both military and civilian.

Colonel Gilkes's military decorations include the Legion of Merit, the Meritorious Service Medal with two oak leaf clusters, and the Air Force Commendation Medal with oak leaf cluster. He is a graduate of Air War College and a Distinguished Graduate of Air Command and Staff College. The Air Force Association also recognized him as a Jimmy Doolittle Fellow. He is a recipient of The Colonel George S. Howard Citation of Musical Excellence for Military Concert Bands from The John Philip Sousa Foundation.

From 1998 to 2011, Colonel Gilkes served as the music director at USAA in San Antonio, Texas, where he directed the corporate concert band, jazz band and chorus.
