CONDUCTED BY DR. MARK J. SPEDE

Dr. Mark J. Spede is Professor of Music, Director of Bands, Director of Tiger Band, and Conductor of the Symphonic Band at Clemson University. He also administrates the band program including athletic and jazz bands. He is the recipient of the Clemson University 2009 Dean's Award for Excellence in Teaching (College of Architecture, Arts, and Humanities), and three Clemson University Board of Trustees Awards for Faculty Excellence (2008, 2009, and 2012). Mark Spede has served the College Band Directors National Association (CBDNA) in a number of capacities; he is currently national president-elect and will become president in 2019.

Dr. Spede previously served on the faculties at The University of Texas at Austin and the University of Florida in Gainesville as Assistant Director of Bands. At Florida, he also taught percussion. As a freelance arranger, he has written extensively for high school and college marching bands. His wind band arrangements are published by Peer Music, Schirmer, Boosey and Hawkes, and Carl Fischer. He served as Assistant Conductor of the Dallas Wind Symphony, where he also helped to produce two of their recordings. He received a Bachelor of Music from the University of Michigan, a Master of Music from Ball State University, and a Doctor of Musical Arts from The University of Texas at Austin.
