The Conductor

Professor Jack O. Evans is Director of the Buckeye Scarlet Band at The Ohio State University, Columbus, Ohio. He is currently Head of the Brass Instrument Department in the School of Music and from 1952-1963 was the director of the nationally famous Ohio State University Marching Band.

He is well known in Indiana and the Mid-West as a guest conductor, brass clinician and adjudicator. In 1967 he was appointed Director of the All-Ohio Boys Band and the All-Ohio Youth Symphony at the Ohio State Fair.

Mr. Evans is a member of the American Bandmasters Association and the College Band Directors National Association. The Indiana Bandmasters Association is pleased to present Professor Evans as conductor of the 1968 All-State High School Band.

HOST SCHOOL—Warren Central High School
JAMES WHITE, Director of Bands

Members of the All-State Band were house guests of parents and students of Warren Central High School. Without this very fine gesture it would be impossible to present this event. Our sincere thanks for the cooperation of the Warren Central High School Band.

All music performed was provided through the courtesy and cooperation of the PAIGES MUSIC COMPANY, Terre Haute, Indiana.

Instrument Repair—Raymond Laffin, Creston Junior High School
