The Conductor

Nilo W. Hovey ('51), Educational Director of H. & A. Selmer, Inc., has been actively engaged in the school band movement since 1925. From 1926 to 1944 he was Director of Instrumental Music in the Hammond, Indiana, public schools. From 1944 to 1957 he was Chairman of the Music Education Department and Director of the Concert Band at Butler University, Indianapolis, Indiana. During this period he was the recipient of the J. I. Holcomb award for his contribution to the advancement of the University and the Arthur W. Baxter award for superior teaching.

Mr. Hovey has served as lecturer, clinician, adjudicator and guest conductor in all sections of the United States and in Ontario, Canada. In the latter capacity he has appeared with the United States Navy Band, the Canadian Air Force Band, and many Intercollegiate and All-State High School Bands.

Numerous instrumental methods and books of instructional material written or edited by Mr. Hovey are widely used in the schools of the United States and Canada.

Mr. Hovey served as President of the Music Industry Council in 1962-64 and as a member of the executive board of that organization for four years. He is an active member of the American Bandmasters Association and was recently elected vice president of that organization. He is an honorary member of the Canadian Bandmasters Association, of Kappa Kappa Psi and Phi Beta Mu. Mr. Hovey is also a member of Phi Kappa Phi Honorary scholastic fraternity, Phi Delta Kappa, fraternity of men in education, and Phi Mu Alpha (Sinfonia).

HOST SCHOOLS

Warren Central High School, JAMES CHANDLER, Band Director
Lawrence Central High School, DON FOUNTAIN, Band Director

Members of the All-State Band were house guests of parents and students of Warren Central and Lawrence Central. Without this very gracious gesture it would be impossible to present this concert.

Instrument Repair—Raymond Laffin, Creston Junior High School

We wish to express our thanks to Butler University for providing the rehearsal facilities in the Jordan College of Music and Clowes Memorial Hall. Appreciation is extended to Dr. John Colbert, Director of the Symphonic Band and Wind Ensemble for serving as local arrangements Chairman.

This program is being broadcast by WAJC-FM through the courtesy of the Indianapolis Local No. 3 of the American Federation of Musicians
