The Conductor

Dr. McBeth has been at Quachita University since 1957 and has been Chairman of the Department of Theory-Composition since 1959. He has been resident composer at Quachita since 1967 and conductor of the Arkansas Symphony in Little Rock, Arkansas since 1969. During his tenure at Quachita he has become well-known throughout the United States as a composer and conductor.

The most outstanding of his awards have been the Presley Award at Hardin-Simmons University, the ASCAP Special Award 1965, 66, 67, 68, 70, and 71, the Howard Hanson Prize at the Eastman School of Music for his Third Symphony in 1963. In 1971 he was awarded an honorary Doctorate of Music by Hardin-Simmons University.

Dr. McBeth has spent many years as permanent and guest conductor of professional and school bands and orchestras. He has been the guest conductor of All-State Bands in Texas, Arkansas, Mississippi, Nebraska, Kansas, New Mexico and Montana. Because of genuine interest in school instrumental programs, he spends a major part of his time as a guest clinician, conductor and lecturer.
