The Conductor

LT. COL. DALE HARPHAM was director of the world famous United States Marine Band in Washington, D.C. from April 18, 1972 until his retirement as director November 1, 1974. Prior to that he was assistant direcor for seventeen years. Previously he served more than twenty years as the band's solo trombonist, cellist, vocalist, narrator, script writer, dance band leader and conductor of special ensembles.

In 1973 The School Musician Magazine named Lt. Col. Harpham one of the ten most outstanding music directors in the United States.

A native of Pleasant Lake, Indiana, Lt. Col. Harpham has returned to Indiana the past three summers to direct the select concert band at the Smith-Walbridge Band Camp.

He is an active member of the American Bandmasters Association and served as Chairman of the ABA Research Center. Other honors include Music Director of the famed Gridiron Club, Director de Musica of the Military Order of the Carabao, and collegiate and professional bands.

The Indiana Bandmasters Association is proud to have Lt. Col. Dale Harpham as the Indiana All-State High School Band of 1976 guest conductor for the second consecutive year.
