THE CONDUCTORS

Mr. O'Neill Sanford, Associate Director of Bands and Marching Band Director at the University of Minnesota, holds a Bachelor of Science degree in Music Education from Southern University in Baton Rouge, Louisiana, and a Master of Music Education degree from Vandercook College of Music in Chicago, Illinois.

Before coming to the University of Minnesota, Mr. Sanford was the Director of Bands at Mississippi Valley State University in Itta Bena, Mississippi, and Assistant Professor of Music and Director of Bands at Virginia State College in Petersburg, Virginia. He has been guest conductor at several high school Regionals and All-State Bands throughout the United States. Mr. Sanford has served as adjudicator for many band festivals throughout Southern, Eastern, and Mid-Western states, as well as Mexico and Spain.

The professional achievements of Mr. Sanford include the $10,000.00 award for first place at the 1973 Braniff International Band Contest, held in Irvin, Texas. Mr. Sanford conducted a Command Performance for the President of Mexico. He was the Guest Conductor for the 1978 Youth All-American Band which travelled throughout Spain, and his special Marching Band arrangements and compositions have been performed by many high schools and colleges throughout the United States. Mr. Sanford was the Regional Coordinator of Music Bowl #1 in Minnesota.

Mr. Sanford is an active member in Kappa Kappa Psi, Phi Mu Alpha, College Band Directors National Associations, National Associations of Jazz Educators, National Association of Wind and Percussion Instructors, and Music Educators National Conference and National Band Association. He has received an Honorary Doctorate Degree from the Conservatory of Music, Mexico City, Mexico.

Dr. William D. Revelli, Director of Bands and Professor emeritus at the University of Michigan, and acknowledged "dean" of American band directors, began his conducting career with the Hobart (Ind.) High School Band. His talents, ideals and uncompromising standards developed six consecutive national championship high school bands, which received the highest praises from noted adjudicators such as John Philip Sousa, Edwin Franko Goldman, Arthur Pryor, A. A. Harding, and many others. The Hobart bands under his leadership are recognized, even today, among the finest ever developed in the schools of our nation.

In 1935, Dr. Revelli was elected to the post of Director of Bands and chairman of the Wind Instrument Department at the University of Michigan, positions that he held for 36 years until his retirement. At the University of Michigan, from a department with one band and one instructor (Dr. Revelli) grew seven bands with more than 500 players and a faculty of fifteen nationally recognized artist-performers and teachers.

Dr. Revelli is founder and honorary life president of the College Band Directors National Association, past president of the American Bandmasters Association, and the first conductor to be elected to the Academy of Wind and Percussion Arts. He was elected to the Hall of Fame of Distinguished Band Conductors in January of 1981. Dr. Revelli was the conductor of the National High School Honors Band in the years 1976, 1978, and 1980.

He has received honorary doctorates from the Chicago Musical College (1947), Oklahoma City University (1953), Western State College of Colorado (1956), Temple University (1971), and Eastern Michigan University (1971). Since his retirement, Dr. Revelli has been musical director of the International Band Festival in Vienna, and a frequent guest lecturer and conductor, here and abroad.
