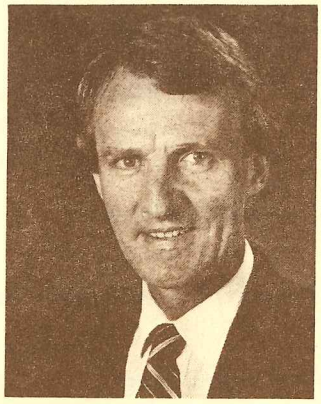
The Conductors

MARK S. KELLY is Director of Bands and Professor of Music Education at Bowling Green (Ohio) State University.

The band program at Bowling Green State University includes the Symphonic Band, Wind Ensemble, four Concert Bands, the Marching Band and an Athletic Band. The Symphonic Band, conducted by Mr. Kelly, has appeared on many professional conference stages including the 1970 College Band Directors National Association Conference, North Central Division at DeKalb, IL; 1972 and 1983 Ohio Music Educators State Convention in Columbus, OH; 1976 CBDNA North Central Division at Bloomington, IN; the Music Educators National Conference in Chicago, IL in 1978 and 1984; and 1979 Western Michigan University Wind and Percussion Conference; and the North Central division CBDNA Conference in 1980.

Mr. Kelly is a member of the American Bandmasters Association (member of Board of Directors, 1982-84); National Band Association (Chairman, North Central Division, 1982-84); College Band directors National Association (President North Central Division 1978-80); Kappa Kappa Psi band service fraternity; Music Educators National Conference; Ohio Music Educators Association; Omicron Delta Kappa (1972 Faculty Man of the Year); Phi Beta Mu, national bandmasters fraternity; Phi Mu Alpha Sinfonia music Fraternity (1978 Distinguished Teacher Award); and Pi Kappa Lambda national music honor society. In October, 1974, Mr. Kelly was honored in being selected as one of the Ten Most Outstanding Music Directors in the United States by the School Musician Magazine. He was the 1981 recipient of the Edwin Franko Goldman Award presented by the American School Band Director's Association for outstanding contribution to the advancement of school bands, and in 1983 was made an honorary member of the Golden Key National Honor Society.



FRANK B. WICKES is currently Director of Bands at Louisiana State University.

Wickes received his degrees from the University of Delaware and the University of Michigan, and taught for thirteen years in the public schools of Delaware and Virginia. His Fort Hunt High School Band of Fairfax County, Virginia became recognized as one of the finest high school programs in the United States. From 1973 to 1980 he served as Director of Bands at the University of Florida.

At LSU he is responsible for administering the total band program. He directs the Tiger Marching Band, conducts the Wind Ensemble and Symphonic Band, and teaches both graduate and undergraduate conducting.

Wickes is highly active as a clinician, having served as a conductor and adjudicator throughout the United States, and in Canada, Mexico, Europe and South America. He is a member of the American Bandmasters Association, the College Band Directors National Association, MENC, and is on the Board of Directors of the National Band Association. He is a member of Pi Kappa Lambda national music honor society and is an honorary member of Kappa Kappa Psi and Phi Mu Alpha.
