The Conductors

STEPHEN W. PRATT is Assistant Professor of Music and Assistant Director of Bands at Indiana University. He currently conducts the Concert Band, University Band, teaches music education methods classes, and is a director of the Indiana University Marching Hundred.

Professor Pratt is a graduate of Indiana University where he was the recipient of the Distinguished Alumni Service Club and Opperman music scholarships. He earned the Master of Music degree from the University of Michigan where he was awarded the Hauenstein Scholarship and was a winner of the Graduate Concerto Competition.

Mr. Pratt has many years of experience teaching bands and orchestras in the public schools of Sturgis, Michigan, where he conducted bands of national recognition. He has served on the conducting faculty of the Blue Lake Fine Arts Camp and the IU Summer Music Clinics. He is a member of the College Band Directors National Association, the National Band Association, the Indiana Bandmasters Association, as well as Pi Kappa Lambda and Kappa Kappa Psi.

H. ROBERT REYNOLDS is Director of University Bands and Chairman of the Conducting Department at the University of Michigan. He has conducted in Lincoln Center (New York), Orchestra Hall (Chicago), Kennedy Center (Washington, D.C.), Powell Symphony Hall (St. Louis), the Academy of Music (Philadelphia) and in Europe has conducted a premiere of an opera for La Scala Opera in Milan, Italy. He has also conducted at the Maggio Musicale in Florence, the Tonhalle in Zurich, and as part of the Holland Festival at the Concertgebouw in Amsterdam. He has conducted numerous premiere performances, and has won the praise of composers Karlheinz Stockhausen, Aaron Copland, Darius Milhaud, Gunther Schuller, Leslie Bassett, Karel Husa, and others for his interpretive conducting of their compositions. Mr. Reynolds is Musical Advisor and Conductor of a professional wind ensemble, the DETROIT CHAMBER WINDS, which is made up primarily of members of the wind section of the DETROIT SYMPHONY ORCHESTRA.

Professor Reynolds holds degrees in Music Education and Performance from the University of Michigan where he was the conducting student of Elizabeth A. H. Green. His teaching career began in Onsted (Michigan) and continued at Anaheim (California) High School. He began his university conducting at California State University at Long Beach and continued at the University of Wisconsin before moving to the University of Michigan in 1975.

Mr. Reynolds is Past President of the College Band Directors National Association, having been active in that organization as national commissioning chairman and host of the national convention. He is Past President of the Big 10 Band Directors Association and is often a guest conductor/lecturer at leading universities and conventions concerning conducting and the analysis of masterpieces of band and wind ensemble repertoire. In addition to his frequent appearances throughout the United States, he was a featured lecturer at the First International Conference for the World Association for Symphonic Bands and Ensembles in Norway (1983) and was invited to speak at the second conference in Belgium (1985). He has also been the guest conductor of the Stockholm Wind Orchestra on several concerts in Stockholm and other cities throughout Sweden. Professor Reynolds is committed to teaching and attracts the finest students from the United States and abroad, and many of these students now hold major conducting positions at leading universities.
