The Conductors

Jerry Junkin was assistant director of bands and assistant professor of conducting at the University of Michigan at Ann Arbor and the University of Texas at Austin before coming to the University of South Florida. Mr. Junkin, who is currently pursuing a doctor of musical arts degree in band/wind ensemble conducting at the University of Michigan, received his bachelor's and master's degrees from the University of Texas in music education and instrumental conducting. During his four years on the faculty at UT-Austin, Mr. Junkin served as conductor of the Symphony Band and assistant director of the Longhorn Marching Band. Ensembles under Mr. Junkin's leadership have appeared throughout the Midwest, the Southwest, New York City and Europe. During the past few years, the University of South Florida Wind Ensemble has received outstanding acclaim under the leadership of Mr. Junkin.

Robert Jager was born in Binghamton, New York (1939) and received his education at the University of Michigan. For four years he served as the staff arranger at the Armed Forces School of Music while a member of the United States Navy. Currently, he is professor of music and director of theory and composition at Tennessee Technological University in Cookeville, Tennessee.

Jager is a widely commissioned and performed composer with over 70 published works to his credit, including compositions for band, chorus, orchestra and various chamber combinations. He has received commissions from some of the finest performing organizations in the world, including the United States Marine Band; the bands from the Universities of Illinois, Michigan, Nebraska, Arkansas and Purdue University, as well as the Tokyo Kosei Wind Orchestra. He has conducted and lectured throughout the United States, Canada, Europe and Japan.

He has won a number of awards for his music, including being the only three-time winner of the American Bandmasters Association's "Ostwald Award." In addition, he has won the National School Orchestra Association's "Roth Award" twice; received Kappa Kappa Psi's "Distinguished Service to Music Medal" in the area of composition (1973); the 1975 "Friends of Harvey Gaul" Bicentennial Competition; the 1976 American School Band Director's "Vokwein Award;" the National Band Association's "Citation of Excellence" (1978); the "Distinguished Service Award" from Purdue University (1979); the "Orpheus Award" from Phi Mu Alpha Sinfonia (1980); the "Sudler Order of Merit" from the John Philip Sousa Foundation (1985); the "Citation With Distinction" from the University of Michigan Band Alumni Association in 1985. In 1986, he was chosen to receive a MacDowell Colony Fellowship to compose at the Colony in Peterborough, New Hampshire.

He is a member of the American Bandmasters Association, Phi Mu Alpha Sinfonia, Kappa Kappa Psi, Phi Kappa Phi and ASCAP. In 1987 he was chosen to become an "Honorary Member" of the Women Band Director's National Association.
