The Conductors

Dr. Allen E. Beck was the seventh leader of the United States Navy Band in Washington, D.C. A Defiance, Ohio native, he earned a scholarship to the Eastman School of Music where he performed under the batons of Dr. Frederick Fennell and Dr. Howard Hanson, and with the Eastman Wind Ensemble. He holds both Bachelor's and Master's degrees from the Catholic University of America in Washington, D.C. Dr. Beck began his naval career as a clarinetist with the U.S. Navy Band. He has served as woodwind instructor at the Navy School of Music, Leader of the Pacific Fleet Naval Air Forces Band, and with the Music Branch of the Bureau of Naval Personnel. Following his appointment to the rank of Warrant Officer, Dr. Beck directed the Navy unit band in Corpus Christi, Texas, and returned to the School of Music as Training Officer. Following his commissioning as an Ensign, he served as the U.S. Navy Band's Assistant Director, and as branch manager of the Bureau of Naval Personnel's Music Branch with responsibility for the entire Navy Music Program's management. Dr. Beck was named Leader of the U.S. Naval Academy Band in 1979 and in 1983 became the first Navy Bandmaster to earn promotion to the rank of Commander through the Navy's selection board process. He was appointed Leader and Music Director of the U. S. Navy Band in Washington, D.C. in 1984. Dr. Beck is on the board of directors of the John Philip Sousa Foundation. In addition, he is a member of Phi Mu Alpha music fraternity, the American Bandmasters Association and the World Association of Symphonic Bands and Ensembles. Since retirement from the Navy in 1989, Dr. Beck represents the Rettig Music Company of Defiance, Ohio as a clinician. He is also the Music Director of the Defiance College-Community Band, and maintains a teaching studio at the Defiance College where he received a Doctor of Music degree (Honoris Causa) in 1988. He teaches woodwind students in Northwestern Ohio and serves as adjudicator, clinician and guest conductor throughout the United States.

Warren Barker, a native Californian, attended the University of California at Los Angeles. He later studied composition with Mario Castelnuovo-Tedesco and Henri Pensis. At the age of 24, he was appointed chief arranger for the "Railroad Hour," NBC's prime musical radio show, a position he held for six years. From the arrangement of "Hello Dolly" on film and the score of "Bewitched" on television, all the way to compositions for the Norwegian Army Staff Band and workshops for Canadian composers, Warren Barker has made a unique and lasting impression on the music world. Today Barker is bringing his rich background and broad experience to the next generation of composers and performers. From radio, he moved naturally into television and quickly became an established figure in 20th Century-Fox, Metro Goldwyn-Mayer and Columbia Studios as composer-arranger-conductor for motion pictures and television. Barker has written music for more than thirty television series, including seven years as composer-conductor for the highly rated comedy series "Bewitched." Other series include "That Girl," "The Ghost and Mrs. Muir," "Daktari" and "The Flying Nun." In 1970, The National Academy of Television Arts and Sciences honored Barker for his original music written for the award winning series, "My World and Welcome to It," based on the life of James Thurber. Barker was a member of the music staff for the Oscar winning motion picture "Hello Dolly." He has received commissions and assignments from a number of sources, including: The Northshore Concert Band, The United States Air Force Band, the Onder Ons Band of Belgium, and the Royal Australian Navy. His compositions and arrangements have been performed and recorded by a variety of musical artists from Frank Sinatra to the Hollywood Bowl Symphony.
