The Conductors

Stephen Peterson

Stephen G. Peterson is Assistant Director of Bands and Assistant Professor of Conducting at Northwestern University in Evanston, Illinois. He received Bachelor of Music and Master of Music degrees from Arizona State University, and a Doctor of Music degree from Northwestern University.

In addition to his duties as conductor of both the symphonic and concert bands, he is director of the "Wildcat" Marching Band. Under Peterson's direction, the marching band was recently awarded the Sudler trophy, the highest award given to a college marching band. He also teaches courses in conducting, marching band techniques, and music education.

Previous to his appointment at Northwestern he was Associate Director of Bands at Stephen F. Austin State University in Nacogdoches, Texas. Dr. Peterson has many years of experience as a successful teacher at the high school and university levels. He frequently serves as a clinician and adjudicator throughout the United States.

John Whitwell

John L. Whitwell is Director of Bands and Professor of Music at Michigan State University, where he conducts the Wind Symphony and guides the graduate degree programs in wind conducting.

Prior to his appointment at Michigan State University, Mr. Whitwell held positions at Stephen F. Austin State University and Abilene Christian University. He also taught in the public schools of Michigan as band director at Ann Arbor Harmon and Northwest Jackson High Schools.

His bands have performed for the College Band Directors National Association Convention, the Texas Music Educators Association Clinic-Convention, the Midwest International Band and Orchestra Clinic, and the Midwest Conference on Vocal and Instrumental Music.

Mr. Whitwell maintains an active schedule as a guest conductor and clinician throughout the United States, and has held resident seminars at the University of Michigan, Northwestern University, University of Minnesota, University of Arizona, Wichita State University, Arkansas State University, Interlochen Arts Academy, Interlochen Arts Camp, and many others.
