Joseph Manfredo

Joseph Manfredo, Associate Professor of Music, was appointed Director of Bands at Eastern Illinois University in the Fall of 1994. A native of Calumet City, Illinois, Manfredo began his musical studies on piano and clarinet. He received a Bachelors Degree in Music from Eastern Illinois University in 1976, studying clarinet with Dr. Earl Boyd and piano with Dr. Catherine Smith. Manfredo continued his musical training at Eastern, completing a masters degree in instrumental conducting one year later.

After graduate school, Manfredo was appointed band director at Highland (IN) High School. His bands at Highland were among the best in Indiana, where they received superior ratings in marching, concert, and jazz competitions. In addition to his duties as band director, he was chairman of the instrumental music department. During his tenure at Highland, Manfredo received an invitation to be part of the Band Conducting Internship Program at the University of Illinois.

From 1982-1984, Manfredo was in doctoral residence at the Champaign-Urbana campus. While at the U of I, he studied conducting with Dr. Harry Begian, Director of Bands Emeritus and was a graduate assistant for Mr. Gary Smith and the Marching Illini. Manfredo received a Doctorate in Music Education from the University of Illinois.

Prior to his appointment at Eastern Illinois University, Dr. Manfredo was Director of Bands at Tennessee Technological University, where he administered the band program and taught music education classes. He was also a senior conducting faculty member at Purdue University in West Lafayette, Indiana, where he conducted the Symphonic Band and Symphony Orchestra.

At Eastern Illinois, Manfredo conducts the Symphonic Wind Ensemble and Eastern Symphony Orchestra. In addition, he teaches undergraduate and graduate courses in conducting and instrumental methods. As Director of Bands he administers a band program of seven ensembles. He is in constant demand as a guest conductor, clinician, and adjudicator. During June, 1977 he was invited to conduct the Porto Alegre and Sorocabe (Brazil) Symphony Orchestras.

Dr. Manfredo is also active in historical research related to wind topics. He has made presentations at all major national band conventions in the United States and also at the IGEB Conference in Mainz, Germany. His doctoral dissertation was awarded the Fritz Thelen Prize in 1994, which recognized it as the outstanding dissertation on the subject of wind bands written at an American university between 1990 and 1994. The dissertation was later published by the Schneider Publishing House of Tutzing, Germany and distributed world-wide.

He is a member of the College Band Directors National Association (a member of the national research committee), Music Educators National Conference, and Past-President of the Indiana Bandmasters Association. His wife, Leslie, is a music educator in the Charleston school district, where they live with their two children, Michael and Jennifer.

James Curnow

James Curnow was born in Port Huron, Michigan and raised in Royal Oak, Michigan. He lives in Nicholsville, Kentucky where he is president, composer, and educational consultant for Curnow Music Press, Inc. of Lexington, Kentucky, publishers of significant music for concert band and brass band. He also serves as Composer-in-Residence on the faculty of Asbury College in Wilmore, Kentucky, and is editor of all music publications for The Salvation Army in Atlanta, Georgia.

His formal training was received at Wayne State University (Detroit, MI) and at Michigan State University (East Lansing, MI), where he was a euphonium student of Leonard Falcone and a conducting student of Dr. Harry Begian. His studies in composition and arranging were with F. Maxwell Wood, James Gibb, Jere Hutchinson, and Irwin Fischer.

James Curnow has taught in all areas of instrumental music, both in the public schools (five years) and at the college and university level (twenty-six years). He is a member of several professional organizations, including the American Bandmasters Association, College Band Directors National Association, World Association of Symphonic Bands and Ensembles, and the American Society of Composers, Authors, and Publishers (ASCAP). In 1980 he received the National Band Association's Citation of Excellence. In 1985, while a tenured Associate Professor at the University of Illinois, Mr. Curnow was honored as an outstanding faculty member. Among his most recent honors are inclusion in "Who's Who in America," "Who's Who in the South and Southwest," and Composer of the Year (1997) by the Kentucky Music Teachers Association and the National Music Teachers Association. He has received annual ASCAP standard awards since 1979.

As a conductor, composer, and clinician, Curnow has traveled throughout the United States, Canada, Australia, Japan and Europe where his music has received wide acclaim. He has won several awards for band compositions including the ASBDA/Volkwein Composition Award in 1980 (Mutanza) and 1984 (Symphonic Variants for Euphonium and Band), the 1985 Sixth International Competition of Original Compositions for Band (Australian Variants Suite), and the 1994 Coup de Vents Composition Competition of Le Havre, France (Lochinvar).

Curnow has been commissioned to write over two hundred works for concert band, brass band, orchestra, choir and various vocal and instrumental ensembles. His published works now number well over four hundred. His most recent commissions include the Tokyo Symphony Orchestra (Symphonic Variants for Euphonium and Orchestra), the United States Army Band "Pershing's Own", Washington, D.C (Lochinvar, Symphonic Poem for Winds and Percussion), Roger Behrend and the DEG Music Products, Inc. and Willson Band Instrument Companies (Concerto for Euphonium and Orchestra), the Olympic Fanfare and Theme for the Olympic Flag (Atlanta Committee for the Olympic Games, 1996), and the Kentucky Music Teachers Association/National Music Teachers Association in 1997 (On Poems of John Keats for String Quartet).

Phi Beta Mu

Phi Beta Mu is the highest honorary international band directors' fraternity. It was organized to encourage the building of better bands and the development of better musicians in schools throughout the world and to foster deeper appreciation of good music and more widespread public interest.

Gamma Chapter of Phi Beta Mu was organized and the charter members initiated on November 27, 1953, at the state convention of the Indiana Music Educators Association. There are presently 93 active members in the state of Indiana.
