2024 IBA All-State Band Guest Conductor Dr. Verena Mösenbichler-Bryant

Verena Mösenbichler-Bryant serves as Chair of the Music Department, Professor of the Practice of Music at Duke University, Director of the Duke University Wind Symphony, and Artistic Director and Conductor of the Durham Medical Orchestra (dmomusic.org).

Verena grew up in Eberschwang, Austria. She began piano lessons at the age of 6, continuing later with church organ, flute, and bassoon. Her conducting debut at age 16 was followed by a three-year fundamental conducting course taught by Johann Mösenbichler. Verena Mösenbichler-Bryant then studied symphony orchestra conducting with Ingo Ingensand at the Anton Bruckner Private University in Linz, Upper Austria, and received her bachelor's degree, with distinction, in 2005. She completed her Master of Music in 2007 with Kevin Sedatole at Michigan State University. Verena graduated in May 2009 with her DMA in Wind Ensemble Conducting from The University of Texas at Austin where her principal conducting teacher was Jerry Junkin.

Verena serves as Associate Artistic Director of the Mid EUROPE festival, Executive Director of the World Youth Wind Orchestra Project, and the World Adult Wind Orchestra Project in Schladming, Austria (www.mideurope.at).

Her transcriptions of John Corigliano's Grammy-winning work, Mr. Tambourine Man, for Wind Ensemble and Amplified Soprano, published by G. Schirmer and Eric Whitacre's Sing Gently and Goodnight Moon, published by Hal Leonard, have received strong praise from the composers and numerous performances.

Verena Mösenbichler-Bryant is Music Director and Conductor of the Schwäbisches Jugendblasorchester and the Eifelphilharmonie, both located in Germany and frequently serves as guest conductor and clinician across the United States, Japan, as well as in her native Austria.

2024 IBA All-State Honor Band Guest Conductor

Dr. Robert M. Carnochan

Robert M. Carnochan currently serves the Frost School of Music as Director of Wind Ensemble Activities, Music Director/Conductor of the Frost Wind Ensemble and Professor of Conducting at the University of Miami. In addition to overseeing all aspects of the wind band program, Professor Carnochan also teaches graduate and conducting and wind repertoire. Prior to his appointment at the Frost School of Music, he served as Professor of Music and Director of the Longhorn Band at The University of Texas at Austin for 13 years. Dr. Carnochan has also served as Associate Director of Bands at the University of Colorado at Boulder, Director of Bands at Northeastern Oklahoma State University, and Associate Director of Bands at Stephen F. Austin State University in Nacogdoches, Texas. Dr. Carnochan began his professional teaching career as Director of Bands at Dundalk High School in Baltimore, Maryland—a position he holds near and dear to his heart.

Through his career, Dr. Carnochan has collaborated with and received praise from a number of established composers including; Andy Akiho, Mason Bates, David Biedenbender, Steven Bryant, Valerie Coleman, Viet Cuong, John Corigliano, Michael Daugherty, Kevin Day, Paul Dooley, Donald Grantham, Jennifer Jolley, Jonathan Leshnoff, John Mackey, David Maslanka, James Mobberly, Carter Pann, Joel Puckett, Carlos Simon, Gunther Schuller, Joseph Schwantner, Omar Thomas, Frank Ticheli, and Xi Wang. Dr. Carnochan is active as a guest conductor, clinician, and adjudicator throughout the United States, and has conducted concerts in London, Spain, Austria, Luxembourg, Switzerland and Singapore.

He has served as producer for several acclaimed recordings by both the The University of Texas Wind Ensemble and the Dallas Winds and his own recording of Donald Grantham's Tuba Concerto, with soloist Charles Villarrubia and the UT Wind Ensemble was released on the Longhorn Music Label and is available for download from iTunes. Future recording projects include two works by Mason Bates; Sideman and Bootleggers Break, Andy Akiho's Ondine's Epilogue, Lili Boulanger's D'un Soir Triste (Of a Sad Evening) and the epic, cross genre work, Passages by composer Will Healy and lyricist, Spiritchild.

Professionally, Dr. Carnochan maintains memberships in the College Band Directors National Association, and has been inducted into the Alpha Chapter of Phi Beta Mu, as well as the American Bandmasters Association. He is the recipient of numerous service and teaching awards including The Eyes of Texas Award, The Texas Blazers award, the DeCloux Fellowship and the Marinus Smith Award.

His degrees include a Bachelor of Science degree in Music Education from Towson University, a Master of Music degree in Wind Conducting from The University of Colorado at Boulder, and a Doctor of Musical Arts degree in Wind Conducting from The University of Texas at Austin. His primary conducting teachers include Allan McMurray, Jerry Junkin and Dana Rothlisberger.

2024 Indiana Gamma Chapter, Phi Beta Mu Outstanding Bandmaster Tom Cox

Tom Cox is a 1988 graduate of Ft. Wayne Northrop High School and a 1993 graduate of Ball State University. He received his Master's degree in 2006 from the American Band College of Southern Oregon University (Ashland, Oregon) and was the first ever winner of the Coups de Vent Award (Valedictorian) from the American Band College.

Mr. Cox took over leadership of the Goshen Band program in 2001 and has seen his ensembles place in the Indiana state finals in marching band, concert band, jazz ensemble, winter percussion and winter guard. Goshen is one of the few schools in the state to have state finalists in all of these areas. He has been named a “Who’s Who Among American Teachers” numerous times and in 2009 was named to the Sousa Foundation’s “Legion of Honor” for outstanding contributions in music education. Mr. Cox has served eighteen years on the Indiana State School Music Association State Board.

In 2016 Mr. Cox was named the Michiana Outstanding Music Educator and in 2017 he was inducted into the Phi Beta Mu International Bandmasters’ Fraternity. In 2020 Mr. Cox was awarded the Indiana Music Educator Association’s Outstanding Music Educator Award and he was just awarded the 2024 Outstanding Bandmaster from Phi Beta Mu Gamma Chapter (Indiana).

Currently Mr. Cox’s teaching responsibilities at Goshen High School include Wind Ensemble, Advanced Crimson Jazz Ensemble, Crimson Marching Band, Symphonic Band and Concert Band. Mr. Cox also oversees the Crimson Percussion Ensemble and assists with the sixth, seventh and eighth grade concert bands at Goshen Middle and Intermediate School. Tom Cox resides in Goshen would like to express his love, pride and gratitude for his family: wife, Amy; daughters Sydney and Faith; and son Mateo.

Phi Beta Mu

Phi Beta Mu is the highest honorary international band director’s fraternity. It was organized to encourage the building of better bands and the development of better musicians in schools throughout the world and to foster deeper appreciation of good music and more wide spread public interest. Gamma Chapter of Phi Beta Mu was organized and the charter members initiated on November 27, 1953, at the state convention of the Indiana Music Education Association.

2024 Indiana Gamma Chapter, Phi Beta Mu Hall of Fame Jim DeCaro

Jim DeCaro was born in San Diego, California and he went to high school in Berwyn, Pennsylvania where he graduated from Conestoga High School. He received his BME in 1979 and his MM in clarinet performance in 1981 from Indiana University. His career includes two years of teaching band in the MCCSC in Bloomington, Indiana, twenty years teaching band and jazz band at Edgewood Junior High School in Ellettsville, Indiana and ten years in the Lawrence Township Schools of Indianapolis teaching band and jazz band at Belzer Middle School and serving as the Curriculum Director for a township wide summer performing arts program.

Highlights from his career include directing his eighth grade concert band from Edgewood Junior High School at the Midwest Band and Orchestra Clinic in Chicago, multiple concert band and jazz band performances at the annual state IMEA convention, unanimous first division and gold ratings at the annual ISSMA Organization and Jazz Band contests, multiple performances and 1st place awards in various band contests in Missouri, Tennessee, Illinois and Ohio and Honor Band awards at the Purdue University, Eastern Illinois and Mattoon Jazz Festivals.

After retiring from public school teaching in 2013, DeCaro has worked with several local high school and middle school band programs, served as a frequent adjudicator at numerous concert and jazz band contests and festivals, directed several honors concert and jazz bands, served as a presenter at several IMEA conferences, and served on ISSMA state list music revision committees. He has also had articles published in several publications.

For the past seven years, DeCaro has served as a University Supervisor of the music education student teachers and now as an Adjunct Lecturer in the music education department at the Jacobs School of Music at Indiana University.

DeCaro is an active clarinetist and performs as the principal clarinetist with the Indiana Wind Symphony and also as a clarinetist with the Indianapolis Symphonic Band, St. Luke's Orchestra and the Southern Indiana Wind Ensemble. Jim and his wife Cheryl have two children and four grandchildren. They reside in New Palestine, Indiana.

Purdue Bands & Orchestras students are some of the most promising individuals on campus. They are bold, hardworking, and determined to succeed in all they do—from performance to academics. They set the Boilermaker standard high. With virtually all of our students majoring in a discipline other than music, our 1200 members spread the optimistic spirit of Purdue Bands & Orchestras across campus. From world-renowned performances by 30+ ensembles, including the Purdue “All-American” Marching Band, Purdue Bands & Orchestras serves as the “Heartbeat of the University” and encourages a lifelong journey with music.

Indiana Bandmasters Association

Purpose

1. To stimulate interest in the study of the band and its literature.
2. To develop a desire for good band literature.
3. To encourage good fellowship between the members of the Association.
4. To bring the work of the Association before the Indiana Department of Education and the citizens of the State in order that it shall gain greater recognition and support.
5. To provide educational meetings for band directors to raise the standards of instruction.
6. To secure recognition of School Administrators and Boards of Education to the effect that the band is an integral part of the school curriculum and is entitled to recognition as a curricular subject.
7. To develop a band in each community which shall serve as a vital force in bringing people into closer relationship with the schools of the State.
8. To assure that no person on the basis of race, color, religion, national origin or ancestry, age, sex, marital status, sexual orientation, or disability be discriminated against, is excluded from participation in, denied the benefits of, or otherwise be subjected to discrimination in any program or activity of the organization.

History

Founded in 1953, the Indiana Bandmasters Association would initially engage in sponsoring a Marching Band Clinic, an All-State Band, and act in an advisory capacity for Indiana Music Education Association (IMEA) on band activities. The first Marching Band Clinic was organized in the fall of 1956 and continued each year through the summer of 1979. IBA would sponsor its first All-State Band in 1961 with John Paynter as the guest conductor. The event went to two ensembles, the All-State Band and the All-State Honor Band, in 1980. The first Junior High All-Region Bands were organized in the fall of 1980 at three sites. As interest grew the number of sites was increased to the current fifteen. In 1994 the event was renamed the All-Region Honor Band Festival.

The first IBA commission was premiered at the 1988 All-State Honor Band concert with the composer, Robert Jager, conducting. The Association premiered the first junior high commission by John O'Reilly at the All-Region Festivals later that fall. The winter of 1995 saw the first collaboration of the Indiana chapter of the College Band Directors' National Association (CBDNA) and IBA to sponsor the Indiana All-Collegiate Honor Band. The group now is formed biannually to perform at the Indiana Music Education Association Professional Development Conference.

In 1999 IBA established All-District Honor Bands for students in grades nine through twelve, performing at six sites in the fall of 2000. The first All-District Band commission, by Robert Sheldon, was premiered in the fall of 2005. IBA now commissions at least one new work for concert band each school year.

In 2005, the membership of IBA established the "Ray Cramer Scholarship" a $1000 grant to be awarded annually to a senior member of the All-State Bands who will pursue a career in music. Previous scholarship recipients are:

2006 - Alexandra Andrejevich, Valparaiso High School	2015 - Olivia Martinez, Culver Academies
2007 - Kylie Stultz, Columbus North High School	2016 - Isabella Griffin, John Adams High School
2008 - Frances Richert, Pike High School	2017 - Kelsey Zetzl, Hagerstown Jr./Sr. High School
2009 - Katie A. Kraft, Penn High School	2018 - Mia Nunokawa, Center Grove High School
2010 - Ashley Miller, Columbus North High School	2018 - Matthew Waggoner, Castle High School
2011 - Rebecca E. Gamble, Penn High School	2019 - Rachel Corwin, Western Jr./Sr. High School
2012 - Sarah Collins, Wm. H. Harrison High School	2022 - Hailey Bennett, Corydon Central High School
2013 - Christopher Jones, Cathedral High School	2023 - Devin Richardson, North Central High School
2014 - Tai Lee Mikulecky, Bloomington High School

In 2009 IBA initiated the first Indiana Junior All-State Band for students in grades seven through nine. Their premier performance was held in conjunction with the 2009 Indiana Music Education Association Professional Development Conference. Dr. Susan Creasup from Morehead State University served as the guest conductor. The first commissioned new work for the Indiana Junior All-State Band was composed by Jesse Ayres and premiered in January 2014.

IBA is a proud member of the Alliance for Indiana Music Education.
