Guest Conductor

Dr. Linda Moorhouse

Dr. Linda R. Moorhouse serves as Professor of Music, Director of Undergraduate Studies, and Associate Director of the School of Music at the University of Illinois Urbana-Champaign. She also serves campus as Chair of the Senate Committee on Education Policy, and is a 2020-21 Fellow of the Academic Leadership Program within the Big Ten Academic Alliance.

Before joining the University of Illinois School of Music in fall 2010, Dr. Moorhouse served on the faculty at Louisiana State University for over 20 years, where she was the recipient of LSU School of Music and several campus-wide awards for teaching excellence. While at LSU, she taught conducting, directed the LSU Symphonic Winds, and served as drill designer, auxiliary choreographer, co-director and teacher of record of the LSU Tiger Marching Band, one of a select few award-winning college marching bands in Division I universities. Under her leadership, the LSU Tiger Band received the Sudler Trophy (the "Heisman trophy" of college marching bands), and won the 2008 ESPN "Battle of the Bands" contest. She also served as director and administrator of the LSU Summer Music Camps.

Dr. Moorhouse is active as a conductor, clinician, and adjudicator both nationally and internationally and her service to the band profession is a matter of record. Concert ensembles under her direction at two different universities have been featured at both national and regional conferences of the College Band Directors National Association, the North American Saxophone Alliance International Conference, and the American Bandmasters Association. She is a Past President and the current Chair of the Nominating Committee of the prestigious American Bandmasters Association, and is a past President and the current Executive Secretary of the National Band Association, the largest professional organization for bands. She is also a past President of the Women Band Directors International, where she is a recipient of the organization's "Silver Baton" and "International Golden Rose" awards for outstanding leadership and service to the music profession. Honored as a Member Laureate (member of international distinction) of Sigma Alpha Iota, the professional fraternity for women in music, Dr. Moorhouse is also a recipient of the "Diploma of the Sudler Order of Merit" from the John Philip Sousa Foundation in recognition of extraordinary service to the music community. The National Band Association has recognized her contributions to bands and band music on numerous occasions with the NBA Citation of Excellence, along with election to the Academy of Wind and Percussion Arts (AWAPA), considered the "Oscar" of the band world. She is the 72nd inductee to this honored academy of prominent musicians and educators. Dr. Moorhouse is a recipient of the Tau Beta Sigma "Paula Crider Outstanding Band Director Award," a member of the VIP community within the Division of Education at Conn-Selmer, and is also recognized in Grove Music Online.

In addition to her conducting and teaching obligations, Dr. Moorhouse has several publication credits including research contributions to multiple volumes of both the Composer's Insight—Thoughts, Analysis and Commentary on Contemporary Masterpieces for Wind Band (Meredith Music) series and the series, Teaching Music Through Performance in Band (GIA), along with other Meredith Music publications.

Dr. Moorhouse received a Doctor of Musical Arts in Instrumental Conducting degree from the University of Washington in Seattle, where she studied with Peter Erös and Timothy Salzman. She holds a Master of Music Education degree from LSU, and a Bachelor of Music Education with Honors degree from the University of Florida, where she is a member of the University of Florida Bands Hall of Fame.

Recent international engagements include serving as an adjudicator on two jury panels for the World Music Contest in Kerkrade, The Netherlands, and as a speaker for the International Round Table Conference as part of the World Music Contest. She also appeared as a conducting clinician and conductor with Portugal's Wind Ensemble of Escola Superior de Música de Lisboa, and has served multiple times as an adjudicator for Singapore's National Youth Music Festival, in addition to working as a clinician and adjudicator in Western Australia.

Indiana Bandmasters Association Purpose

1. To stimulate interest in the study of the band and its literature.
2. To develop a desire for good band literature.
3. To encourage good fellowship between the members of the Association.
4. To bring the work of the Association before the Indiana Department of Education and the citizens of the State in order that it shall gain greater recognition and support.
5. To provide educational meetings for band directors to raise the standards of instruction.
6. To secure recognition of School Administrators and Boards of Education to the effect that the band is an integral part of the school curriculum and is entitled to recognition as a curricular subject.
7. To develop a band in each community which shall serve as a vital force in bringing people into closer relationship with the schools of the State.

Indiana Bandmaster Association

History

Founded in 1953, the Indiana Bandmasters Association would initially engage in sponsoring a Marching Band Clinic, an All-State Band, and act in an advisory capacity for Indiana Music Education Association (IMEA) on band activities. The first Marching Band Clinic was organized in the fall of 1956 and continued each year through the summer of 1979. IBA would sponsor its first All-State Band in 1961 with John Paynter as the guest conductor. The event went to two ensembles, the All-State Band and the All-State Honor Band, in 1980. The first Junior High All-Region Bands were organized in the fall of 1980 at three sites. As interest grew the number of sites was increased to the current fourteen. In 1994 the event was renamed the All-Region Honor Band Festival.

The first IBA commission was premiered at the 1988 All-State Honor Band concert with the composer, Robert Jager, conducting. The Association premiered the first junior high commission by John O'Reilly at the All-Region Festivals later that fall. The winter of 1995 saw the first collaboration of the Indiana chapter of the College Band Director's National Association (CBDNA) and IBA to sponsor the Indiana All-Collegiate Honor Band. The group now is formed biannually to perform at the Indiana Music Education Association Professional Development Conference.

In 1999 IBA established All-District Honor Bands for students in grades nine through twelve, performing at six sites in the fall of 2000. The first All-District Band commission, by Robert Sheldon, was premiered in the fall of 2005. IBA now commissions at least one new work for concert band each school year.

In 2005, the membership of IBA established the "Ray Cramer Scholarship" a $1000 grant to be awarded annually to a senior member of the All-State Bands who will pursue a career in music. Previous scholarship recipients are:

2006 - Alexandra Andrejevich, Valparaiso High School	2015 - Olivia Martinez, Culver Academies
2007 - Kylie Stultz, Columbus North High School	2016 - Isabella Griffin, John Adams High School
2008 - Frances Richert, Pike High School	2017 - Kelsey Zetzl, Hagerstown Jr/Sr High School
2009 - Katie A. Kraft, Penn High School	2018 - Mia Nunokawa, Center Grove High School
2010 - Ashley Miller, Columbus North High School	2018 - Matthew Waggoner, Castle High School
2011 - Rebecca E. Gamble, Penn High School	2019 - Rachel Corwin, Western Jr/Sr High School
2012 - Sarah Collins, Wm. H. Harrison High School	2022 - Hailey Bennett, Corydon Central Jr/Sr HS
2013 - Christopher Jones, Cathedral High School
2014 - Tai Lee Mikulecky, Bloomington HS North

In 2009 IBA initiated the first Indiana Junior All-State Band for students in grades seven through nine. Their premier performance was held in conjunction with the 2009 Indiana Music Education Association Professional Development Conference in Indianapolis. Dr. Susan Creasup from Morehead State University served as the guest conductor. The first commissioned new work for the Indiana Junior All-State Band was composed by Jesse Ayres and premiered in January 2014 at the IMEA Professional Development Conference in Fort Wayne.

IBA is a proud member of the Alliance for Indiana School Music
