

CHAD GAYSO

Chad Gayso was born and raised in Owensville and attended Gibson Southern High School where his band director was Dwight Emmert.

He is a graduate of Indiana University, earning his BME in 2004.

Chad has taught at Forest Park Jr/Sr High School and is currently at Jasper High School.

He was recognized with the 2014 Peabody Energy Leader in Education Award.

His most memorable performance was at the 2024 ISSMA State Concert Band Finals where his son Levi played his last performance as a senior in the band.

Chad and his wife Kristin have a son, Levi, and a daughter, Laurian.