Has taught at University of South Carolina and Penn High School (Mishawaka)

Has served as President of NISBOVA, ISSMA (twice), and Gamma Chapter.

Has been recognized with the JB Vandaworker Award from Butler University; Outstanding Bandmaster Award and Hall of Fame, Gamma Chapter; Michiana Outstanding Music Educator Award; Penn HS Alumni Assoc Hall of Fame

Most memorable performance: I take great pleasure in enjoying travel and events through the eyes of students, so I have three: Co-conducting an All-Region Band with my son Gary and grandson Matthew playing in the band; the 2001 Tournament Roses Parade with 309 performers and a traveling party of 376 and at least that many stories; the 2008 Midwest Clinic (at the Hilton) with a wonderful band along with guest conductor Ray Cramer and guest soloist Patrick Sheridan.

Keith and his wife Julie share three children: Gary, Dan, Kasey, Nichole, and Natalie, and four grandchildren.
