

KYLE YOUNG

Kyle Young was born and raised in Fairborn, Ohio where he attended Fairborn High School. His band director there was William Carver.

He is a graduate of Wright State University (BME) and VanderCook College of Music (MME).

Mr. Young has taught at Fairborn HS, William Mason HS, and Carmel HS.

He was recognized as the 2013 Wright State University School of Music Outstanding Alumni.

His most memorable performance was the opportunity to conduct two ensembles at the ISSMA State Concert Finals along with his Carmel colleagues.

Kyle and his wife Kelly have two children, Landon and Evelyn.